Local Star Beaten When Vickers Scores Birdie Four on 37th After Exciting Battle—J. Chaston Wins

Junior Itte

By Bill. Livis

Coming through with a birdle four on the 37th hole after a great contaback in the last 18-hole round of the scheduled 36-hole final, Stewart Vickers, slender, shockhaired youngster from Calgary Regal Golf Cith won the Alberta Amateur golf championship for 1982 from youthful Bobby Proctor, dark-thatched and smilling little star of Mayfair and Country Club, over which course the match was played.

Alberta Answer and State Control of the Mark that the dark that the match was blayed.

Forced to come from well behind as a result of trailing by two holes at the end of the morning round. Vickers staged a strong battle in the afternoon to wipe out the lead held by Proctor and make of the final one of the most rousing soft grades of the match of the morning round. The large and colorful gallery that evarred over the course in the wake of the two youngsters in the afternoon saw them fight every inch of the way for the victory that meant so much and saw them finally wind up all square at the finish of the 36 holes, thus necessitating an extra hole to decide the championship.
